

Rich wife, poor hubby
Lalu poor than Rabri, children

9

Precious locks
Any hairstyle goes
if it suits your face

2

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER

The Hitavada

2. Vidarbha LINE

'Awareness will bring justice to women'

■ Amravati Bureau
AMRAVATI, Mar 29

INJUSTICE against women would continue till they realise their right of franchise, asserted State President of Women's Congress, Pushpa Bonde.

She was delivering the guest speech at the inauguration of the two-day 5th biannual Mahila Rajsatta Andolan here at Science Core ground on Sunday.

Akola Zilla Parishad President Sadiya Anjum inaugurated the agitation. Chief of Panchayat Women's Front Maya Sorate presided over.

the guests of honour. Bonde further said appreciating Ramabai Ambedkar and Savitribai Fule is not enough. One must follow their footprints. Women cannot be powerful, unless she is aware, stated Bonde.

Sadiya Anjum, in her inaugural speech, said that women from Muslim community are breaking the barriers and coming out of the houses for their rights which is a good sign. Women have capability of doing something good for the other women. They can improve the society, if they join politics, added Sadiya Anjum. Maya Sarote said women are the backbone of the society but unfortunately, they are and not given fair treatment. Women need to unite and fight against the injustice. They must use the power of voting to bring good changes in society and Pushpatai Bonde, Sadiya Anjum, Ravikumar Rana and other guests on the dais.

Sharada Sathe of Stree Mukti Sanghatana Bharti Sharma, Anjali Maidev, Sunita Raut, Ravikumar Rana, Yashwant Chavan, Snehalata Baraskar, Rajiya Sultana, Nisha Shende and Kushwarta Bele were also concentrate on social causes. Sarote also took the review of Mahila Rajsatta Andolan work.

Sunita Raut delivered the introductory remarks. A large number of women attended the programme.